

PARENTING

IN A MEDIA FILLED WORLD

October 27th

Webb Chapel Church of Christ

9:30 am Characteristics of a Well-Functioning Christian Family

How to show appreciation and communicate well
Spending time together and committing to family life
Being a family of faith, helping you face crises.

11:00 am Social Media and Media Convergence

What are the various social media channels?
Watching out for our children: sexting, cyberbullying, & online predators
How to prevent dangerous situations.

1:00pm Electronic Battlefields: Your Child & Television

Just how much do we and our children watch?
What are the proven effects of too much TV?
What are the best real-life methods to reduce harm to my children?

DELTON
MCGUIRE

Mr. McGuire received a B.A. in Mass Communication/Journalism from Oklahoma Christian University and his M.A. in Communication from Stephen F. Austin State University. He and his wife, Valerie, have worked with children and families in Christian child care and education for more than 26 years. McGuire's experiences include preaching ministry, therapeutic foster care, and teaching at the collegiate level. In graduate school he specialized in media effects, which laid the foundation for these presentations.